

SINGAPORE

Graduate Certificate in Narrative Therapy 2018

Would you like to immerse yourself in narrative ideas next year?

If so, this rigorous practice-based program has been developed specifically for Singapore practitioners.

The 2018 program will consist of:

- 10 days face-to-face training in Singapore with members of the Dulwich Centre International Teaching Faculty
 - Introduction to Narrative Therapy (must complete before Level Two)
 - Narrative Therapy Level Two
 - Choice of one other 2-day workshop
- A reading / writing program in which you relate the ideas of narrative practice to your own contexts and receive feedback from a Dulwich Centre tutor
- Supervision on a taped interview of your work
- Two further skype consultations
- The creation of a written practice project
- An oral presentation about the use of narrative practices in your context
- Online forum

The entire program is designed to improve your skills in narrative practice and adapting them for your context!

Face-to-Face workshops

There are a number of options available for participants in relation to completing the 10 days face-to-face teaching days. These include:

26 – 28 March 2018

Introduction to Narrative Therapy

by Mohammed Fareez

(Hosted by SEL Network)

9 – 13 July 2018

Narrative Therapy Level Two

by Carolyn Markey

(Hosted by SEL Network)

23 – 24 July 2018

Narrative Family Therapy

by Chris Dolman

(Hosted by SEL Network)

26 – 27 July 2018

Narrative Therapy Supervision

by Chris Dolman

(Hosted by SEL Network)

More 2018 workshops will be announced in coming months!

What's more, if you have already completed training workshops in narrative therapy by members of Dulwich Centre International Faculty (whether in Singapore or elsewhere) these may be recognised as counting towards the required 10 days of face-to-face training. For more information about this, visit the SEL Network website: www.theselnetwork.sg or contact Molly at dcp@dulwichcentre.com.au

Pathway to Master of Narrative Therapy and Community Work

Those who complete this graduate certificate program will be eligible for recognition of prior learning for one subject of the Master of Narrative Therapy and Community Work (University of Melbourne and Dulwich Centre)

Cost

The certification module of this program costs AUD$2000.

This does not include the cost of face-to-face workshops which are paid separately to the organisers of these events.
