GRADUATE CERTIFICATE
IN NARRATIVE THERAPY

Immerse yourself in narrative therapy ideas next year. This rigorous practice-based program has been developed specifically for Singaporean practitioners. Here is the 2020 program:

• 10 days face-to-face training in Singapore with Dulwich Centre International Teaching Faculty members
• A reading/writing program in which you relate the ideas of narrative practice to your own contexts and receive feedback from a Dulwich Centre tutor
• Supervision on a taped interview of your work including two further Skype consultations
• The creation of a written practice project
• Oral presentation regarding narrative practices within your particular context and online forum

Pathway to Master of Narrative Therapy and Community Work

Those who complete the graduate program will have this recognised as the equivalent of one of three subjects in the Master of Narrative Therapy and Community Work (University of Melbourne and Dulwich Centre).

Cost of Program
The certification module of this program costs AUD $2000 if you apply directly. If you go through SEL Network, the cost is $2500. This does not include the cost of face-to-face workshops which are paid separately to the organisers of these events.
